Editor's Note:

Did you see the 'showcase' dancers at the April dance? Check out the photos above, and look for more photos on the website and on Facebook of the 4/20 dance – I'll get them posted soon!

We had another great silent auction with some pretty interesting donations. We never know what will show up for the auction – we've had everything from large artwork prints to DVDs, from candy baskets to gloves, and from tools to pies! Thanks to everyone who brought items to donate for our silent auction.

The May 18 dance will be our last dance until September (unless we put something else together). Arlene will be teaching Night Club Two-Step at the May 18 dance, and Christine & Ken are playing the live music.

Rumor has it that several of our dancers are going to participate in the Washington Senior Games Dance Competition on July 6, 2019, in Olympia. (Check the box on Page 2 for info.) Arlene is busy teaching and choreographing for them. The competition is free for spectators, so anyone and everyone can come watch and support their favorite dancers! (There are a couple of breaks during the event where the rest of us can dance, too.) It's an amazing event – the organization and detail that goes into making it happen is an incredible feat of logistics, and do we ever appreciate those who donate their time and efforts to this event! Way to go, Senior Games people!

We'd love it if you all could come dance with us on May 18!

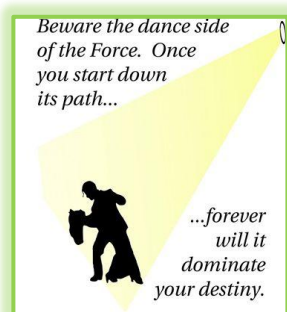

Dance! It's what we do!
